

JEWISH POPULATION OF KUTNO IN HISTORY

Year	Jews	Total	% Jews	Events in Kutno and Poland
1513				First Jews in Kutno mentioned: merchants Mosze, Szlomo, Lewka
1673				250 Catholics
1753				Fire destroys city and community documents
1765	928
1767		1000		Jewish granted citizen's status in law
1768				Insurrection of Polish patriots against occupation
1772				End of insurrection and first partition of Poland
1776	1000
1791	1272	2003	63,50%	668 Catholics, 63 Lutherans
1793	1272	2019	63,00%	Jewish cemetery founded, second partition of Poland
1795				Third partition after Kosciuszko
1796	1376	1924	71,52%
1800	1401	2278	61,50%
1806				Napoleonian troops enter Kutno
1808	1357	2105	64,50%	Fire destroys 180 houses
1813	1815	2676	67,80%
1815				Vienna congress, new partition but central Poland independant
1821	2566	3927	65,34%
1824	2715	4307	63,04%
1826	2777	4461	62,25%
1827	2859	4620	61,90%
1830				Uprising of Poles, finishes in bloodbath
1833		4032
1836	2831	4385	64,56%
1840	2635	4060	64,90%
1857	3859	5868	65,80%
1859	3898	5668	68,80%
1864	4003	5798	69,00%
1876		8029
1881		8021
1890		10595
1893	6580	10385	63,36%
1897	5169	10356	49,90%
1906	8641	13581	63,60%
1908	8978	14251	63,00%
1909	9083	14407	63,05%
1910	9245	13547	68,20%
1914				Germany invades Poland
1918				Poland independant
1921	6784	15976	42,00%	Democratic Constitution that does not resist crises (1)
1926				Pilsudski dictature
1928		21000
1931	6440	23368	27,60%
1935				Military dictature
1939	6700	26000	25,80%	Sep. 1: Germany invades Poland. Kutno falls on 16th
1940				June: 7000 Jews in ghetto. 280 die of hunger and epidemics in six months
1941				July: Poland totally under German and Russian control
1942	0			March 19-26: deportation to Chelmno, Jews gased in gas vans
1944				Warsaw destroyed after insurrection
1946	12	20066	0,10%	Some Kutno Jews returned to their hometown, then most left for Israel
1947	0			Poland becomes a "popular democracy"
2006	0	47267		Last census

(1) Non-jewish population artificially increased after neighbouring villages were incorporated to city, for political reasons.